

EQUIED FUTURE OF RACING SCHOLARSHIP

Irish National Stud & Gardens, Kildare. ☎ 08997013884 ✉ info@equied.com 🌐 www.equied.com

Equi-ed Contract of Scholarship Enrolment - Terms and Conditions

[By ticking the I agree button, you accept the Terms and Conditions as set out below]

Thank you for applying for the Equi-ed Future of Racing Scholarship. We will accept your scholarship application on the basis of the facts which you have outlined to us.

Equi-ed – Contract of Enrolment – Terms & Conditions

IMPORTANT - PLEASE READ AND ACCEPT THE ATTACHED TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENROLMENT CONTRACT TO CONFIRM THE APPLICATION OF YOUR PLACE ON THIS SCHOLARSHIP. BY DIGITALLY SIGNING THIS CONTRACT, YOU FULLY ACCEPT THE ATTACHED TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

1. EQUI-ED- Means Equi-Ed, Therese Murphy and any others acting on behalf of it.
2. STUDENTS – Students are expected to have experience of handling horses and agree to working in pairs if necessary (for health and safety reasons).
3. SAFETY – The safety of Equi-Ed personnel, the student, fellow students, third party individuals and animals is of major importance, the student must, at all times, be mindful of such and behave in a considerate and responsible manner that does not put their safety and that of others at risk.
4. PAYMENT – The payment is none refundable, however if you are unable to make it to the training (please let us know well in advance if possible), you will be offered an alternative suitable date. Please avoid cancellation if at all possible. All attempts are made not to incur any transfer fees, but Equi-Ed reserve the right to do so if unavoidable.
5. In the unlikely event that Equi-Ed would need to cancel the training (only in exceptional circumstances) then either a full refund will be offered or transfer to an alternative suitable date.
6. HORSES – Depending upon the venue, if you are bringing your own horse to the training, you must seek permission from Equi-Ed first, your horse must be free from disease or illness and fully vaccinated. Also well behaved around other horses and with people - the owner must advise Equi-Ed if there are any behavioural issues with the horse prior to attending. The horse must be equipped with items such as head collar, rugs, hay net etc. Equi-Ed accepts no liability for the horse in any capacity whatsoever and wheresoever in travelling to and from the venue and if being used in the workshop for training. The horse is not covered by Equi-Ed insurance nor that of the training venue and it is used in the workshop entirely at the owner's own risk.
7. INSURANCE – It is recommended when riding and working with horses (including Equi-Ed training courses) that personal accident insurance is taken out. If you are an Equine Therapist, you must have the appropriate insurance.
8. CLOTHING – Students should wear appropriate stable yard clothing for working with horses and any personal protective equipment such as gloves, hats, body part protectors such as back, wrist, knee etc if required.
9. STUDENT HEALTH – any students who may suffer from a health condition which may affect them during the training should make Equi-Ed aware of this on enrolment.
10. EQUIPMENT – No equipment must be moved or removed from the venue where the training is being held.
11. CO-OPERATION – students must co-operate with fellow students and staff of Equi-Ed and the training venue to maintain a socially acceptable standard of behaviour.
12. DISCLAIMER – Students attending the training agree that neither they nor their representatives will make any claims against Angela Hall or the Equine Massage Academy Ltd, Therese Murphy of Equi-Ed or those acting on behalf of it, whosoever, wheresoever and whatsoever or anyone else connected to the training including those at the training venue in respect of any loss or injury to property, person, horse or other animal which they may sustain either before, during or after the training. The training is undertaken wholly and severally at the student's own risk.

EQUIED FUTURE OF RACING SCHOLARSHIP

Irish National Stud & Gardens, Kildare. ☎ 08997013884 ✉ info@equied.com 🌐 www.equied.com

13. DISCRETION – Students must not make reference to the condition of any horse being worked on during the training to the horse owners, fellow students or the training establishment. If there is a need that the condition of any animal used in the training is such that the owner or person(s) responsible for the horse needs to be notified, then this will only be done by Equi-Ed. If a student is found to be behaving without the appropriate discretion during or following the training then they may be withdrawn from the training and any future training events.
14. PHOTOGRAPHS / FILMING – no photography or filming is allowed during the training unless agreed by Equi-Ed.
15. TEACHING – Students must not demonstrate or teach Equine Massage Academy or Equi-Ed techniques to others. Nor should they undertake treatments/therapy which are beyond the scope of their training.
16. REFERENCE MANUAL – this is provided for the training and is protected by copyright and must not be copied or used by anyone else other than persons attending the training.
17. COMPLETION OF THE TRAINING –students must work within the Veterinary Act of their country at all times.

Fees & Payment Plan

1.0 Terms This Agreement will be between: the Provider: Equi-Ed, Redinagh, Killurin, Wexford and you the student

2.0 Training Fees You (the student) agrees to pay Equi-ed (The Provider) The total fee for the training course you picked. Under the following payment plan arrangement: Payment for Module one of 50% prior to commencement. Remaining 50% will be paid before commencement of Module 2.

3.0 Fee Payment Please note that you are committing to a place on the course should you wish to defer Module 2 to a later date or not continue with the course the outstanding Module 2 payment will still be due and owed to Equi-ed Ltd on the original Module 2 due date.

4.0 Governing Law This agreement will be construed in accordance with the Laws of Ireland and Northern Ireland.

5.0 Default This is a legally binding financial agreement. If the student shall default any obligation under this Agreement, then Equi-ed may declare the amount outstanding to be immediately due and payable. All costs, expenses and expedition incurred by enforcing this agreement as a result of default will be added to the amount outstanding and will be paid by the student.

6.0 Entire Agreement This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and there are no further items or provisions either verbal or otherwise. Please digitally sign in full.

By ticking the I agree button, you accept the Terms and Conditions

Finally, we look forward to meeting you and will be happy to answer any queries you may have.
Yours sincerely,

Therese Murphy
Owner of Equi-ed

Terms and Conditions updated Jan 2025